In reviewing the complaint filed in this matter the Court notes that plaintiff Drew Conner ("Conner") is resident of Rockland County, New York; that defendant Ford Motor Company ("Ford") is a Delaware corporation doing business in New York; and that defendant Roush Performance Products, Inc. ("Roush") is a Michigan corporation doing business in New York. The complaint indicates that the events giving rise to the claims asserted in the underlying action occurred in connection with Conner's purchase from a Ford dealer in Mt. Vernon, New York, of a vehicle produced and marketed by Ford and Roush. It therefore appears that in whole or in major part this action arose in Rockland and Westchester Counties and that all or substantial parts of the material events, documents, persons and potential witnesses related to this action are located in Rockland and Westchester Counties. Accordingly, pursuant to Rule 22 of the Rules for the Division of Business Among District Judges, in the interest of justice and sound judicial administration, it is hereby

ORDERED that the Clerk of Court is directed to reassign this case to White Plains.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: NEW YORK, NEW YORK
